

Letter to Scrooge

Write a letter to Scrooge, telling him what he is missing in life by being cranky and negative with the people around him. Start your letter with a salutation, state your main points with reasons and evidence, and conclude with a closing and your signature. IN the body of your letter, be sure to include strong support for the opinions you present.

You may use evidence from your own life and from the story. Use the space below to plan.
